Curtis Kaiser

Curtis M. Kaiser has legal offices in both Belmont Shore and Seal Beach. His practice is focused exclusively on estate planning and business law with a special emphasis on serving the needs of closely-held or family businesses and entrepreneurial entities.

Mr. Kaiser began his legal career over a decade ago, focusing on business litigation with the Orange County office of Morrison & Foerster. Then, after serving as general counsel for Digital Interactive Systems, an early-stage technology company based in Long Beach, Mr. Kaiser opened his own practice in 2007.

He earned his B.A. degree, with honors, from the University of California at Santa Barbara and his J.D. degree from Santa Clara University, where he was named a Dean's Fellow and received a full tuition and books scholarship for the entire three years of law school. Mr. Kaiser is currently pursuing a masters in business administration from UCLA's Anderson School of Management on a part-time basis. He expects to receive his MBA degree in 2012.

Mr. Kaiser is currently an Instructor in the Paralegal program at the University of California, Irvine where he co-developed the program's first course in estate planning. He is a frequent author and speaker on estate planning topics.

Mr. Kaiser is a member in good standing of the State Bar of California and the Estate Planning & Trust Council of Long Beach.
